

Los Angeles Wheelmen VP Report - September 17, 2024

Hello All:

Last Sunday's route gave us our last chance this summer to ride the Balboa Ferry. Our little trip across the water made me think of sea going songs for our theme tonight and I remembered this one. This is the original, but it has been covered many times, including by the Beach Boys

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=b__fI0xeTyI

Sunday: Our ride was "Balboa - Newport" which started in Tustin. We had 6 riders at the start and Phil Whitworth took this photo:

That's Rafi Karpinski, Chris Hedberg, Russ Brynes, Me, and Bill Faulkner. Rafi and Phil did the long route while the rest of us did the medium. However, Bill and I quickly fell behind so there were really two groups of two on the medium. As it turned out, we all finished at about the same time. As mentioned above, we all had a ride on the Balboa Ferry. Phil took this photo aboard:

Before Balboa we went through Laguna where they hold the annual Pageant of the Masters. I've always wanted to go to that but never have. Phil took this shot: